BIOGRAPHICAL NOTICE OF THE LATE JOSIAH HENRY BENTON

The late Josiah Henry Benton Jr. was born at Addison, Vermont, August 4th, 1843. He received his education in the public schools, Bradford (Vt.) Academy, the New London (N. H.) Literary and Scientific Institute, and studied law at the Albany Law School, from which he graduated in 1866, being admitted to the Bar, May 5th, 1866. From August 15th, 1862, to July 1863, he served as a private in Company "H," Twelfth Vermont Volunteers. During the years 1867 to 1873, he practised law in Lancaster, N. H., serving during a part of this time (1868 and 1870-1872) as Assistant-Clerk and Clerk of the New Hampshire House of Representatives. The early part of 1873 found Mr. Benton in Boston where he practised law until his death, specializing in corporation and railroad law. As a Trustee, and President of the Board of Trustees of the Boston Public Library, he rendered valuable service to that Institute from the time of his first taking on his duties in 1894 until his death. He was the author of numerous monographs and addresses on legal, economic and legislative subjects; also of "Samuel Slade Benton, His Ancestors and Descendants," 1901; "A Notable Libel Suit," 1904; "Early Census Making in Massachusetts," 1905, etc. In the formation of his library, Mr. Benton devoted himself largely to American History, specializing in items relating to Vermont. As a collector of autographs, he ranked among the more discriminating of modern collectors, gathering together one of the most important and interesting collections of recent years. This collection of autograph letters will be sold immediately following the sale of Mr. Benton's Library herein catalogued.

Conditions of Sale

1. Any bid which is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer, if, in his judgment, such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

2. The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for re-sale the lot so in dispute.

3. Payment shall be made of all or such part of the purchase money as may be required, and the names and addresses of the purchasers shall be given immediately on the sale of every lot, in default of which the lot so purchased shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

Payment of that part of the purchase money not made at the time of sale, shall be made within ten days thereafter, in default of which the undersigned may either continue to hold the lots at the risk of the purchaser and take such action as may be necessary for the enforcement of the sale, or may at public or private sale, and without other than this notice, re-sell the lots for the benefit of such purchaser, and the deficiency (if any) arising from such re-sale, shall be a charge against such purchaser.

4. Delivery of any purchase will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.

Deliveries will be made on sales days between the hours of 9 A. M. and 1 P. M., and on other days—except holidays—between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M.

Delivery of any purchase will be made only at the American Art Galleries, or other place of sale, as the case may be, and only on presenting the bill of purchase.

Delivery may be made, at the discretion of the Association, of any purchase during the session of the sale at which it was sold.

5. Shipping, boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, and will not be performed by the Association for purchasers. The Association will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

6. Storage of any purchase shall be at the sole risk of the purchaser. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter, while the Association will exercise due caution in caring for and delivering such purchase, it will not hold itself responsible if such purchase be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

Storage charges will be made upon all purchases not removed within ten days from the date of the sale thereof.

7. Guarantee is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness or authenticity of any lot, and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing, or any imperfection not noted. Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, after which it is sold "as is" and without recourse.

The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly, and will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued, and, in its judgment, may either sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert who thereby would become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without proper foundation.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Buying or bidding by the Association for responsible parties on orders transmitted to it by mail, telegraph or telephone, will be faithfully attended to without charge or commission. Any purchase so made will be subject to the above Conditions of Sale, which cannot in any manner be modified. The Association, however, in the event of making a purchase of a lot consisting of one or more books for a purchaser who has not, through himself or his agent, been present at the exhibition or sale, will permit such lot to be returned within ten days from the date of sale, and the purchase money will be returned, if the lot in any material manner differs from its catalogue description.

Orders for execution by the Association should be written and given with such plainness as to leave no room for misunderstanding. Not only should the lot number be given, but also the title, and bids should be stated to be so much for the lot, and when the lot consists of one or more volumes of books or objects of art, the bid per volume or piece should also be stated. If the one transmitting the order is unknown to the Association, a deposit should be sent or reference submitted. Shipping directions should also be given.

Priced copies of the catalogue of any sale, or any session thereof, will be furnished by the Association at a reasonable charge.

EXTRA-ILLUSTRATED with 38 portraits, 4 views, illustrated BROADSIDE, A.L.S. of HENRY CLAY, and lower portion of a Government Deed or Grant containing the AUTOGRAPH SIGNATURES of,—JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, HENRY CLAY and BEVERLY CHEW.

The Deed reads as follows,—“Given under my Hand and the Seal of the United States of America the twenty second day of May in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and twenty seven John Quincy Adams By the President. H Clay Secretary of State. State of Louisiana, District of Mississippi, Countersigned by Bev. Chew, Att(?).” (The words in italics are written in by hand.)

The letter, written in the autograph of Clay, on the first page of a 4to folded sheet, reads,—

Washington 15th April 1842.

“My Dear Sir

“I received your letter transmitting drafts for $10,000 on Mr. Woods with your a/c, and I hope to be able to make them available to meet my acceptances becoming due in a few days. Should you not have remitted the residue, prior to the receipt of this letter be pleased to send it to me at Ashland, for which I set out in a few days.

“Lord Ashburton appears to be animated by the most friendly dispositions, but nothing has transpired as to the progress or prospects of his negotiation.

“James Erwin Esq.

“Yrs’ Affy

(Signed) “H. Clay.”

The BROADSIDE is a Political Campaign Poster, with title,—“The Life and Public Services of Henry Clay,” with portrait of Clay at head and engraved decorative border around the text. Copyrighted by R. G. Berford, eastern District of Pennsylvania, 1844. (Two small tears in margin neatly repaired.)

138. ESQUEMELING (A. O.). The Buccaneers of America. Now faithfully rendered into English. With facsimiles of the original engravings, portraits, etc. 4to, cloth, gilt top. London, and New York, 1893
Reprinted from the Edition of 1684, with a reprint of the very scarce Fourth Part, by Basil Ringrose, 1685. Edited by Henry Powell.

139. EVERETT (EDWARD). Orations and Speeches on Various Occasions. Portrait. 4 vols. 8vo, cloth, partly uncut, backs of Vol. I and II faded, different cloth, as issued. Boston, 1850-1868
Vol. I is Second Edition. Signature of J. H. Benton, Jr. on titles of Vol. I-II.

140. FILSON (JOHN). *The Discovery, Settlement, and Present State of Kentucky, and Introduction to the Topography and Natural History of that Rich and Important Country; also Colonel Daniel Boone's Narrative of the Wars of Kentucky, with an Account of the Indian Nations within the limits of the United States * * * etc.* Illustrated with a large whole-sheet map of Kentucky from actual surveys, and an inset plan with description of the Rapids of the River Ohio. By Capt. Thomas Hutchins. 8vo, half morocco.
London: John Stockdale, 1793
RARE. The original edition was printed at Wilmington in 1784, and the publisher's notice states that this reprint contains considerable additions. Much of the information was obtained from Daniel Boone, James Harrod, and other early pioneers with whom Filson was personally acquainted, and preceding the description is a notice signed by Boone, Harrod and Levi Todd stating that they have revised the book, and that it contains as accurate a description as can be given. The author, while surveying the present site of Cincinnati, in 1788, disappeared, presumably killed by the Indians.
This edition, the first separate English edition, contains the very rare map giving the sites of towns and settlements which have now disappeared. It was re-engraved from the superlatively rare original, long claimed to be unknown, but which now exists in a few highly treasured copies. Scarcely half a dozen copies of the 1793 Filson have been offered for sale during the last twenty-five years, and these (with one exception) have all lacked the map. Even Brinley could not procure a perfect copy. THE MAP IN THIS COPY IS COLORED.
The Edward N. Crane copy, with bookplate.

Savannah: Seymour & Williams, 1811-1816
ONE OF THE RAREST OF SOUTHERN STATE HISTORIES. Vol. 2 was published by William T. Williams, 1816. This work was never completed. Volume 1 covers the history of the State from 1584 to 1772; Volume 2, to 1784. Both volumes are largely devoted to the history of the border warfare with the Creek and Cherokee Indians, with sketches of their chiefs and of the Loyalists who led them. Much of the material was obtained from the lips of the survivors, and from manuscripts no longer available. The whole forms the foundation of our present knowledge of the early history of Georgia.

The first two volumes consist of copies of letters from Roswell Farnham to his wife and other members of his family, with several from other members of the same family, and various orders which were issued to Col. Farnham during the time of his service with the First and Twelfth Regiments. The writer of the articles for the Free Press (the third volume) signs himself,—“G,” and his name does not appear to be given in the manuscripts. The letters are not only extremely interesting from a personal point of view, but give many interesting details and descrip-

545. VIRGINIA. Stith (William). The History of the First Discovery and Settlement of Virginia. pp. viii, 331; [and] An Appendix...Containing A Collection of such ancient Charters or Letters Patent, as relate to that Period of Time... pp. v, 34. Two parts in one volume. 8vo, polished calf, gilt tooled, gilt edges, BY PRATT.

Williamsburg: William Parks, 1747

FIRST EDITION. There were two editions of Stith's "History of Virginia" printed at Williamsburg in 1747, the title-pages the same, but the text printed from the same type readjusted. The above copy agrees throughout with the Church copy, a full collation of which will be found in the Church Catalogue, No. 963. Church calls this the FIRST EDITION, but stating that the priority of printing can not be decided. Evans calls the other printing the First, but it is generally believed that this edition, which is printed on much finer paper than the other, is the FIRST PRINTING of the work. The fact that the errors in pagination which occur in this edition are for the most part corrected in the other would seem to indicate its priority.

With 3 sheets of manuscript notes copied from Charles Dean's copy of Stith's History, laid in.

Stephen Gardiner. Small folio, half red morocco, printer's mark cut from centre of title-page, and repaired, last leaf somewhat repaired. Not returnable.

Imprinted at London by Reynolde Wolfe, 1531

FIRST EDITION of this famous work, printed mainly in BLACK LETTER. It is rare in any condition, and the above, with the exception of the defects mentioned, is a copy in fairly good condition.

664. [CREECH (THOMAS).] The Odes, Satyrs, and Epistles of Horace. Done into English. With 2 engraved plates by M. Burghers. Small Svo, contemporary English red morocco, gilt tooled panel on sides, gilt tooled and lettered back, gilt edges.

London: Printed for Jacob Tonson...and Anthony Stephens
... 1684

FIRST EDITION. FINE COPY OF THIS SCARCE EDITION, with the two leaves of advertisements and genuine blank leaf at end, in a handsome and well-preserved binding. The pagination is not consecutive and a number of pages are misnumbered, but the signatures are complete, and the volume is perfect.

Creech lost his reputation by this translation of Horace, but it nevertheless went through a number of editions.

From the William Gott collection, with his bookplate.

665. CRUIKSHANK (GEORGE). The Life of Napoleon Bonaparte, by W. H. Ireland. Engraved title-page with vignette in each volume, 27 folding plates (24 in colors) by Cruikshank, and a facsimile in the text. 4 vols. Svo, blue crushed levant morocco, gilt tooled sides and back, and dentelle inside borders, gilt edges on the rough, BY RIVIÈRE.

London: John Fairburn, and John Cumberland, 1823-1828

WITH ALL THE PLATES IN THE FIRST STATE. Several plates have been reinforced in back of outer fold and two refolded, and the lower margin containing the imprint is trimmed away on the plate.—"Napoleon's Arrival at the Tuilleries," issued by Cumberland for the last volume. Otherwise the entire work is in perfect condition. Cohn, No. 421: Douglas, No. 57 (and p. 266).

This work was originally issued in 64 parts, the first 48 by John Fairburn, forming volumes 1, 2, and 3, with printed titles dated respectively 1823, 1825 and 1827, with a line folding plate in each alternate part (24 plates, 23 in colors and one, "Napoleon's Generals," in sepia tones). After the 48th part the publication was taken over by John Cumberland, and finished in another volume in 16 more parts (8 double parts). In this last volume were the plates.—"Napoleon's Arrival at the Tuilleries," in color, portrait of the Duke of Reichstadt in black and white, and of the Empress Maria Louisa in aquatint, and engraved titles for the three volumes already published as well as for this last volume, the three plates and titles all bearing Cumberland's imprint, and two plates with the Fairburn imprint. In Fairburn's edition the plates were not always issued in order and sometimes appeared in advance of the text, which accounts for there being two plates in the last volume with the Fairburn imprint in place of Cumberland's. There were a number of cancelled leaves to the parts. Cumberland then reissued the entire work in four volumes having cancelled Fairburn's printed titles and having also altered Fairburn's imprints on the plates to his own, with his address, 19 Ludgate Hill. He later printed a second reissue with the address,—“2 Cumberland Terrace, Camden New Town.”

The present copy is apparently made up from the ORIGINAL PARTS, with the Cumberland engraved titles, ALL THE PLATES AS ORIGINALLY ISSUED, and the substituted leaves for those cancelled in the parts. The original wrappers, Fairburn's printed titles and the cancelled leaves are not included, but the fact that all the plates bear the Fairburn imprint, with the exception of the three in the last volume which were first issued by Cumberland and therefore never appeared under Fairburn's name, and also that the substitute leaves are printed on different paper from the other sheets, which would scarcely have been the case if they had all been printed at the same time, seems conclusive evidence that this SET IS MADE UP ENTIRELY FROM THE ORIGINAL ISSUE IN THE PARTS.

"Haymarket Theatre. Augt 17.

"My dear Sir,

"I came to explain how it was that you had not yet had an answer (crossed out) a reply to your answer. Since I first wrote to you, I have had the benefit of reading my little piece to my friend Mr. Planché, & the consequence is, that I have enlarged, & I think, improved it. My alterations are however not quite finished, but I hope to be able to send it you every day.

"Faithfully Yours,

(Signed) "Leigh Hunt.
